

Arts-Crafts Club Meets

Arts and Crafts club was entertained last week by Mrs. Addie Parks with Mrs. Maybelle Banks as co-hostess.

Mrs. Vivian Cook conducted the business meeting at which time the club voted to pay the expenses for one girl to attend the YWCA camp.

The members spent the evening working on slippers, rug making, knitting and leather work.

Refreshments were served during a social hour to Mes. Vivian Cook, Ruth Hardin, Helen Miller, Bettina Miller, Ruth Kilgore, Francis Snodgrass, Florence Childs, Hazel Ward, Leila Everly, Leah Arterburn, Mary MacDonald, Cora Bohrer.

The next club meeting will be a "Hard Times" costume party at the home of Mrs. Arterburn.

HEAR TALK ON 'STAINED GLASS'

Women's auxiliary of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church heard an interesting talk on "Painted Windows" at their meeting last week at the church. Mrs. Judson, of a painted glass firm of Los Angeles told of the origin of stained glass windows and described the numerous windows she had seen in the cathedrals of Europe on her tour last summer. Mrs. Judson pointed out that "the stained glass is the only glass that does not reflect light, the only window that God's light shines through".

A business session was conducted by Mrs. Robert Sleeth and refreshments were served by St. Anne's guild.

Entertains

Mrs. W. A. Clinksale entertained her bridge club last Friday evening at her home, 1541 El Prado Ave.

A delectable salad course was served at a table centered with carnation and flanked by tapers.

At the close of the evening of bridge, high score was held by Mrs. Dorothy Post and second by Mrs. Alma Smith.

Mrs. Clinksale's guests were Mes. John Keefe, R. R. Smith, J. S. Lancaster, Charles Schultz, C. T. Rippey, Alma Smith and Post.

Mrs. John Keefe will entertain the group in two weeks.

MISS MARY ELIZABETH COLEMAN
... Future Bride

Mary Elizabeth Coleman's Troth to E. J. Cooper Told

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Mary Elizabeth Coleman to Edward James Cooper is being made this morning by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Coleman, 2441 W. 229th St.

No date has been set for the wedding. The future bride was graduated from Torrance High School in 1956.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper, 1436 W. 219th St., attended Narbonne High School. He is now serving in the United States Air Force stationed at Hamilton Air Base.

VISIT CATALINA

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pike and daughter, Judy, spent a three day vacation on Santa Catalina Island where Mr. Pike attended a Pest Control Operator's Convention. The family stayed at the St. Catherine Hotel where they enjoyed swimming, boat riding and sight-seeing the island.

Mrs. Clinksale's guests were Mes. John Keefe, R. R. Smith, J. S. Lancaster, Charles Schultz, C. T. Rippey, Alma Smith and Post.

Mrs. John Keefe will entertain the group in two weeks.

Wayfarer's Chapel Setting Of Herman-Hahn Ceremony

Maxine Herman became the bride of John Hahn at Wayfarer's Chapel Saturday morning, at 10:30 o'clock.

The bride was radiant in a bouffant blue gown of dotted Swiss organdy over taffeta. The gown featured full-length elbow sleeves, a high neck-line and was trimmed in small white flowers.

A small blue hat held her shoulder-length veil and she carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis, centered by a blue orchid.

Her sister, Margaret Cullinan, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Ethel Fisher, Frances Whitney, Jean Walker and Frances Sweet. All wore gowns of matching dotted Swiss over taffeta. With an off-the-shoulder effect, the gowns had fitted bodices and bouffant ballerina skirts.

Flowers for the bride's attendants were white and blue with matching streamers. Serving the bridegroom as best man was Tommy Holmes, son of the bride. Another son, Dennis, gave the bride in marriage. Ushers were Mickey Fisher, Neil Whitney, Bob Sweet and Gene Walker.

Following the wedding ceremony, the more than 75 guests adjourned to the Neil Whitney home to honor the couple at a reception in the patio near the pool.

The bride couple cut a three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with a bouquet of real flowers.

Upon returning from their honeymoon, the couple will make their home at 320 Via Linda Vista. Both are employed by the Torrance Police department.

Embres-Rudynski Vows Are Recited in Military Rite

In a military ceremony at the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita last Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m., Miss Bella Grace Embres, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Embres, 1663 W. 254th St., Harbor City, recited her marriage lines with Lt. Joseph Rudynski, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rudynski of Los Angeles.

The Rev. Shelly officiated at the marriage ceremony. Mr. Embres escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a semi-formal gown of white lace, fashioned with a Peter Pan collar, fitted bodice with six tiers of tulle forming the skirt. Her lace-edged veil fell from a pearl tiara and she carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and carnations.

Mrs. Mary McClintock, wearing pink lace, served as the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sylvia Ann Rudynski, and Mrs. Louis Sanchez, both wearing pink lace. All of the attendants carried cascades of carnations to match their gowns.

Lt. George Zimmer stood as best man and ushers were Sgt. James McClintock and Ens. Edward Yemec.

After the wedding a reception was held in the parish hall. The couple are on a week's honeymoon to Arizona and the Carlsbad Caverns.

Their new home will be at Coronado where Lt. Rudynski is stationed with the United States Navy.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High school in 1953 and the Harbor Junior college in 1955. She will teach in San Diego.

Lt. Rudynski attended Harbor JC before entering the navy.

Gold Star Mothers Meet

American Gold Star Mothers Inc., Torrance Memorial chapter held its regular social meeting Wednesday, June 19 at the home of the president, Mrs. Gertrude Dobson in Gardena.

The nine members present spent the day quilting and at noon a chicken dinner was served by the hostess.

Plans were also made for a picnic at the Torrance Park on July 17 at 6:30 p.m. This will be for all members and their families.

The next chapter meeting will be held July 3 at 2 p.m. at the American Legion Hall.
